AEC Assures Nation It Has Superiority In A-Weapons

Glowing Report to Congress

Uranium Production Hits Record; Lower Costs Are Pointed Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's atomic arsenal is "growing rapidly in total numbers," the government said today, and high-level action has been taken to assure continued U. S. superiority in the A-bomb and H-bomb field.

The Atomic Energy Commission so told Congress today in its semi-annual report which also said there had been record production of uranium from domestic sources in the last six months and a "sharp rise" in the production of fissionable materials at lower unit costs.

Report Progress

AEC reported the start of operation of "a number of components" of its big plant at Savannah River, S. C., where materials for either A-bombs or H-bombs can be made. And it reported continued progress toward development of reactors for industrial nuclear power, which it said may be produced economically in the foreseeable future, and "for naval and aircraft propulsion and other military requirements."

AEC said its rapidly growing stockpile of atomic weapons reflects "a trend of increased variety and versatility" which, it continued, has extended the military usefulness of the fissionable materials available.

"Paralleling fission weapon development since 1950," the commission report said, "there has been in progress a concerted development effort on thermonuclear weapons (hydrogen bombs)."

Policy Decision

"In view of important development programs, a national policy decision was made to take every advantage of such progress to assure that the United States maintains its superiority."

"The President directed the commission to continue to produce atomic weapons during 1954 consistent with this decision."

Fifty Chickens Reported Stolen

Theft of 50 chickens from the Albert Grossman farm, about 18 miles southwest of Dixon on Rt. 26, was reported to Lee County Chief Deputy Sheriff Roubel Burrs Thursday.

Grossman said the chickens were white rocks and Rhode Island reds. The theft was discovered Thursday morning.

Witnesses said her car was weaving down the road before plunging into the canal.

Demand, who told officers he had a lapse of memory on events preceding the deaths, was arrested shortly after officers found his wife's body. He drove up to the scene and police found two guns in his car. He said he had heard the police sirens and followed them, hoping to take some pictures.

Sheriff's Capt. D. L. McGovney said a shot fired from one of the guns and the slug that killed Frederick "compared favorably."

Investigators said Demand had an argument with Frederick about six months ago, accusing him of having "a date" with Mrs. Demand.

Renew Coffee Probe Demands Speculators Blamed for Hikes in Price of Brew

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional critics of soaring coffee prices renewed their call for stricter regulations today in the wake of a government report blaming the price hikes on speculators and other artificial causes.

The Federal Trade Commission issued a report Thursday saying the boost in average retail coffee prices—from 91 cents to $1.18 a pound between December and April—"cannot be explained" in terms of the laws of supply and demand.

Cite Speculation

It said one reason was speculation by both U. S. and Brazilian interests, but that price hikes also stemmed from skimpy coffee crop reports and from Brazil's action in raising its minimum coffee export price from 53 to 87 cents a pound July 1.

And while the price spiral added less than a cent to the cost of a cup of coffee in American restaurants, it said, the customer's bill was upped from 5 to 10 cents and in many cases to 15, 20 and even 25 cents.

But it had this encouraging word: With production up and consumption dropping off, prospects are for "lower coffee prices in the future barring excessive crop damage and provided supply and demand are permitted freely to run their course."

Gillette Comments

Sen. Gillette (D-Iowa), author of a bill to put the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange under federal regulation, said in an interview today the FTC finding "confirms the decision and judgment" of the Senate Banking subcommittee which investigated coffee prices early this year.

"A combination of speculative interests in Brazil and the United States which manipulated the market was chiefly responsible for the rise in coffee prices," Gillette said. "My amendment to put the Coffee Exchange under federal regulation would be a great help."

State School Tot Dies Under Truck Wheels

Ducks Formation, Scrambles Under Truck Crushed

A seven-year-old Dixon State School patient was crushed to death Thursday afternoon when he crawled under a stationary laundry truck and was trapped beneath the wheels when the truck went into motion.

The victim was Roger Meyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Meyers, Chicago.

Robert Wallace, superintendent of the school, said that a preliminary investigation had absolved the truck driver, Charles Camery, 45, Dixon, of negligence. An inquest has been scheduled for 4 p.m. today by Coroner Robert Preston.

Wallace said that investigation shows that the child was one of 40 being directed to their nursery by an attendant. The truck had made a delivery at a children's ward and was approaching a street intersection. It halted there to allow the formation to pass. The group cut at right angle and was passing the stalled truck when apparently Roger ducked the formation and scrambled beneath the truck. He was not missed until a moment later when the group had passed the truck and the truck driver set the vehicle in motion.

An autopsy showed that Roger had received a crushed skull. The victim had been a patient at the school since 1950.

Wallace said that the parents had been notified of the tragedy. They will attend the inquest this afternoon to identify and claim the body.

Suggestion Of Senator Smith OK'd

Would Investigate Wisconsin Senator Instead of Censure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) today quoted Vice President Nixon as saying Smith is "on the right track" with a proposal to investigate Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) as a substitute for a move to censure McCarthy.

Smith told reporters that if his substitute is defeated, however, "I would feel compelled" to vote for a resolution by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) proposing to "condemn" McCarthy's Red-hunting tactics as chairman of the Senate Investigations subcommittee.

As a substitute for the Flanders resolution, Smith has proposed that the Senate create a special committee, headed by Nixon, to investigate "the alleged good or evil of so-called McCarthyism." The committee would report to the Senate early next year.

Not A Bit "I asked Nixon, 'Did I embarrass you?'" "He said 'not a bit'."

Smith said some senators have told him they would not support his substitute because it looked like "ducking the issue," regarded as politically explosive.

"I'm ducking no issue," he continued. "If my resolution is defeated, I'm going to vote for the Flanders resolution."

He said he would feel "compelled" to do so.

"I've been compelled, much to my regret, to criticize Joe McCarthy," Smith said. "I have urged him to work with the administration but he never seems to."

Waiting To Be Counted Smith said a number of senators want to make it clear that "they are waiting to be counted" on the issue of McCarthy, and seem inclined to let the test be made on the Flanders resolution.

Accused Slayer Free Under Bond Charged With Shooting Phoenix, Ariz., Neighbor

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — William E. Demand, charged with the murder of his "best friend," was out of jail on a $30,000 bond today.

He is accused of the slaying of Vernon Donn Frederick, 38, Scottsdale service station owner and city councilman. Frederick was shot to death in the living room of his home.

About an hour later in the early morning hours Wednesday Mrs. Faye Demand, wife of the accused, was found dead in a canal. Investigating officers said she drowned when the car she was driving plunged into the water.

Shot in Heart Demand, 35, owner of a photo shop at Scottsdale, is charged with shooting Frederick through the heart with a .32 caliber pistol while Frederick was watching television in his home.

The Frederick and Demand families were next-door neighbors.

Mrs. Demand, daughter of a wealthy Dallas, Tex., family, was the former wife of A. Pollard Simons, widely known Dallas real estate man and builder. She was the step-daughter of the late Capt. J. F. Lucey, a multimillionaire.

Mrs. Demand was left a trust fund of $250,000.

Prosecuting County Atty. William P. Mahoney Jr., said "We think we can prove Demand was jealous." He did not elaborate on the statement.

Double Inquest A double inquest is scheduled today. First an inquiry will be made

Witnesses said her car was weaving down the road before plunging into the canal.

Demand, who told officers he had a lapse of memory on events preceding the deaths, was arrested shortly after officers found his wife's body. He drove up to the scene and police found two guns in his car. He said he had heard the police sirens and followed them, hoping to take some pictures.

Sheriff's Capt. D. L. McGovney said a shot fired from one of the guns and the slug that killed Frederick "compared favorably."

Investigators said Demand had an argument with Frederick about six months ago, accusing him of having "a date" with Mrs. Demand.

into the circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Demand. Then, witnesses will be heard in the fatal shooting of Frederick.

Mahoney has maintained throughout the preliminary questioning he does not believe there is any connection between the two deaths, although they occurred only about two blocks apart and within a period of 40 minutes.

The county medical examiner said an autopsy showed Mrs. Demand had drowned and also that tests disclosed her blood had an alcoholic content of .245. The examiner, Dr. Daniel J. Condon, added that the amount was equivalent to 12 shots of whisky or 12 bottles of beer.

Attend the Church of Your Faith Regularly

SHOULD BOBBY HATE COPS?

Bobby had always wanted to be a policeman. But recently he has gotten acquainted with an older boy who hates cops. This older boy belongs to a gang. He has been "in trouble" several times. Despite the fact he comes from a respectable family, he is a juvenile delinquent.

The older boy is poisoning Bobby's mind. He is teaching Bobby to look at life through the eyes of a juvenile delinquent. The gang starts early to "train" new recruits!

Is there any antidote in Bobby's life to counteract the poison to which he is exposed? There can be.

It's not too late for Bobby's family to realize his need for religious training. They can begin next Sunday to be a church-going family. They can bring him to church school, provide a Christian atmosphere in his home, encourage him in his spiritual and moral development.

God cares about Bobby's future. Our community cares. Our churches all care. DO BOBBY'S PARENTS CARE?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Blame for Indochina

If all Indo-China should fall or should it be partitioned in a fashion favorable to the Communists then the standard American game of assigning blame will begin in earnest. This is a game our politicians dearly love to play, but not one that many play with any real sense of responsibility for truth.

In some cases they are grossly inaccurate, as measured against checkable facts. In others, they make convenient assumptions where the facts either can't be fully ascertained or seem to be conflicting. In a relative few, they put the blame where it belongs.

Their eagerness to fix blame, usually on the opposite political party is understandable enough. But where this effort is pursued irresponsibly, it is no service to the American people, even though politicians may imagine it is a service to them at the polls.

Somewhere in all the vast complexity of today's affairs there ought to be a place for the simple truth. Not too many seem to worry about it. Most go blithely about distributing their own versions of events free of charge, without the necessary critical regard for activities.

It's about time to call a halt to this reckless writing of history "off the cuff." The story of China's fall to communism is now so muddled by wild political distortions that the average citizen is hopelessly lost in trying to gauge what happened. We should not have a repetition of this on Indo-China.

Though professors as such are automatically suspect in the eyes of some politicians, there must be some historians in this country who command fairly broad respect in all political quarters.

These scholars ought to be commissioned now to give us the fullest, truest story presently ascertainable on events in Indo-China.

A panel of experts on the Far East could be chosen by the organization of American historians, with due regard to the need for the most impartial and most dispassionate approach.

They could undertake the study as judges tackle any social issue of grave importance.

That does not mean their report would be accepted as would a judge's verdict. You could never hope to convince political extremists with a mere recital of facts. They are largely impervious to facts. Indeed, they make a specialty of ignoring them.

But it would be like a fresh breeze to have so sober and responsible an effort made to find and tell the real truth in a critical area of foreign affairs. And ask any doctor: fresh air is good for people.

The Doctor Says:

See Your Doctor About Foot Warts; They Can Be Cured by X-Ray, Radium, Electro-Surgery

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

A common ailment and one which is most difficult to treat successfully is the subject of today's first inquiry.

Q—Can you give me a cure or at least relief from foot warts? They are painful and I cannot seem to find a remedy.

A—This presumably refers to what are known as plantar warts on the soles of the feet. They are frequently extremely difficult to cure or relieve. Methods commonly used are X-ray, radium, electro-surgery, and operation. The best possible medical advice should be secured.

Q—Why does a woman gain weight so easily after a female operation?

A—From eating too much. Effects on the glands or metabolism are generally of little or no importance.

Q—A friend of mine weighs 170 pounds and is continually taking a laxative to help her lose weight. What will eventually happen to her?

A—She will probably get an irritated digestive tract. That is not a good way to lose weight.

Q—My doctor wants me to take gold treatments for arthritis. What do you think of this?

A—This is one of the most widely used forms of treatment for some kinds of arthritis. The results sometimes are excellent but the treatments have to be given with considerate care and the patient watched carefully for any sign of reaction to the gold.

Q—About a year ago my 19-year-old son had a sudden ulcer attack and lost a great deal of blood by vomiting. Later it was found that he had a duodenal ulcer the size of the tip of a small finger. He has not been ill since. Is it possible that the ulcer is healed? Mr. K.

A—Bleeding or hemorrhage is one of the complications which sometimes occur in ulcers of the stomach or duodenum. It seems likely that your son's ulcer has healed but he should no doubt continue to be careful of his diet for some time to come.

Q—I have been taught that one should take a laxative two or three times a year to keep the liver in shape. Is this correct? Mrs. W. F.

A—No.

Q—Several years ago I had a hysterectomy. For some time I have been taking vitamin capsules containing vitamin B complex, vitamin C and minerals. Is it safe for me to take this three times a day indefinitely? Mrs. S.

A—It probably will cause no harm but it is expensive and in all likelihood is not necessary if your diet is satisfactory.

What's Right?

When your car is in the way of a person who is trying to park or move out of a parking space—move it.

The driver who sits at the wheel of a double-parked car and lets another poor driver struggle to try to get by him is a real road hog.

Of an estimated 60 million buffaloes in the United States in early 1889, only about 600 survived in 1889.

NEW YORK—Through the memoirs of Jonathan Daniels, of Raleigh, a political associate of three scheming Democratic presidents, there runs the arrogant humility of those wreckers of civilizations who presume to speak as the only qualified agents of "the people" but present no credentials because they have none.

Daniels never was elected to any public office. Neither was his father, Josephus. Neither was Eleanor Roosevelt. Brandeis and Frankfurter are likewise destitute, although both have wrought important changes in our way. Bryan was elected to Congress for one term but was turned down three times for president by popular vote, the great test of "democracy" which all this plotting cult pretends to hold ideal.

Yet, in his latest recollections, called "End of Innocence," Daniels put himself forward as a virtuous figure in a good revolution whose principal feat of reform was the abolition of a few stuffy mansions of the rich and the substitution of a class of subsidized permanent parasites entitled to public pensions which exceed the incomes of many of the plutocracy who were humbled and busted by their income tax.

Earl Warren, for a typical example, is entitled to a pension of at least $16,000 and probably much more, from the State of California. Tom Dewey's pension rights must be at least as great. The recent mayor of New York, Vincent Impellitteri, will qualify in a couple of years for $21,000.

Truman got $200,000 free of taxes and subject to no accounting as a rank bonus during his second presidential term. And he isn't entitled to a large pension for his public service as senator and as a member of Tom Pendergast's predatory county board, then he can only blame himself for electing the wrong option.

The great humanitarians of this selfish surge dating from 1913 are far above the petty dole of "Social Security" which they have loftily provided for the faceless millions. Even the unions scorn this mite, insisting on pension deals with big industry which supersede the dividend right of the modest investor of little savings.

Unions operating in small business are trying to do likewise, but the principal result so far is a monumental graft which will leave individual toilers nothing but their old-age handouts when they are too infirm to work.

The impudence of a man in proclaiming himself and his cohorts benefactors of mankind is typical of all the dictators of Europe, Latin America, and Soviet Russia. Hitler, Mussolini and Peron were no more smug and superior than these.

Actually, their key victory in politics was the turn that sent two generations, thus far, of the common man, and multitudes of his women, down the road to war and regimentation in uniform. There have been three such wars so far, the second two flowing out of the madness of the first. And a nation which respected and protected women until Wilson's first term, has herded them into tanks and barracks and seriously degraded the social and moral standards which were fixed and respected in the derided Nineties.

Daniels boasts of the grand coup which nominated Wilson over Champ Clark of Missouri. But Clark was an inland American of strong mind and principle who would have seen that the first war was just another European gut-busting and would have left Britain and Germany at grips until they had the sense to divide up the field again for another breathing spell. Sure, Champ Clark drank. It may be, as his enemies said, that he sometimes got drunk. Many a good man has been known to, whereas Bryan mocked the habits of most of his own followers by drinking toasts in grape-juice.

To be sure, Bryan quit as Secretary of State rather than go to war with an administration which he helped to set up, but that futile

HOLLYWOOD —(NEA)— Exclusively Yours: Betty Hutton and Sophie Tucker have agreed to agree after some strained relations. Bouncin' Betty's warming up again to play the last of the Red Hot Mamas in a proposed Tucker film biography and Sophie's beaming.

Betty was touted off the Tucker role a few months back, much to Sophie's disappointment. But a doll can change her mind, and Betty changed it. That's the reason for her surprise "Friendship, Friendship" on-stage appearance at Sophie's opening at Ciro's.

Audrey Dalton surprised Hollywood when it turned out that she had gone through the entire filming of Bob Hope's "Casanova's Big Night" in an "interesting condition" and gave birth to a daughter six weeks after the picture wound up. Winks L'l Audrey: "And I'd do it again. Why should people know? The wardrobe people knew, but nobody else did until I told them."

NOW IT CAN BE TOLD that Van Heflin and his wife Frances had a near brush with tragedy.

One of their new baby's lungs was collapsed at birth and Frances was rushed to the hospital with complication three hours before the time set for her Caesarian. But mama and child are now out of danger.

Hollywood censors are clutching their scissors waiting for Anthony Quinn's Italian starrer, "Attila, the Hun."

Love scenes between the star and Italian beauty Sophia Loren are said to be scorchers.

Cecil B. DeMille, readying "The Ten Commandments" for the screen, is insisting, as usual, that all of his actresses are intelligent as well as beautiful.

Says DeMille: "The most beautiful girl I have ever seen in Hollywood, when asked about her acting experience, replied: 'Whatever I have did, I have did good.'"

THERE WILL BE no Marlene Dietrich type peek-a-boo gown for Mae West when she plays her first night-club engagement at the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas.

Rehearsing with Louise Beavers — "Beulah, peel me a grape!" — the still well-preserved Marilyn Monroe of the early 30's, told me:

"The public knows what I have. I don't have to expose it."

Marilyn's wiggle has been compared to Mae's Diamond Lil walk but Mae can't speak with authority on the subject because she says she's never seen MM on the screen. "She's the Mae West type, though," she admitted. "So is Mamie Van Dorn."

Since 1944, when she made "The Heat's On," her last movie, Mae's been playing Diamond Lil in yearly stage tours and she now has plans for a television series.

There's concern, she admits, about her "sex personality" — "even the simplest things I say sound naughty." But there is, she says, sponsor interest.

MAXINE and LaVerne Andrews are working up a new sister act. They lost Patty to the lure of solo stardom.

Prettiest scenery of the week: Connie Buck, the Miss Apache, beating the publicity tom toms for Burt Lancaster's "Apache."

There's box-office-in-TV note: Three video names, Herb Shriner, Paul Winchell and Sam Levenson are heading current Las Vegas shows. Not to mention the three big films for Merle Oberon after her "comeback" on Ford TV Theater. The scars left on Merle's face by a make-up ailment, by the way, have now been erased through a new medical technique. She no longer requires special make-up.

Ed Gardner, retiring as Archie on Duffy's Tavern to return to writing, directing and producing, was the husband of Oscar-winner Shirley Booth when he first became an actor. Now married to pretty Simone, the mother of his two sons, he's telling it:

Trying to Make Over Hub? Read This Letter—and Think

It may interest a lot of men to know that there are some wives who don't want to make over their husbands.

Here's a letter I got from a wife who not only like her husband just as he is but wonders why so many wives make the mistake of trying to turn the men they married into "perfect" husbands.

She writes: "Women try making over their husbands and wind up having a resentful 'boy' on their hands instead of a husband who, if let alone, would probably in time want to be what his wife is trying to make him be."

"When will women learn to mind their own business and not try undoing something God himself created. If women would just try living with their men as they are instead of criticizing and trying to reform them! In time—if his wife lets him be himself—a man will recognize his own mistakes and will try to please his wife because she loves him 'as is' and he wants to please her. But never, never will he change if she nags him."

A wife couldn't have a much better philosophy than that for a happy marriage.

TRY IT OUT FOR A YEAR

If you have been trying unsuccessfully to make your husband over, or just to get him to change a few of his ways, how about deliberately adopting that live-and-let-live attitude toward him?

Try it for a full year. When tempted to criticize or nag, reread those words of a happy wife and keep still.

Let him know you think he is okay just as he is. Praise him for the things he does to please you and ignore the things he does that you used to let annoy you.

And maybe you will be happily surprised when the year is up to find that you have found the secret of how to live happily with a man.

PILGRIM'S MISTAKE

"The Pilgrims made the mistake of not bringing cows with them, and lack of milk is said to have a bearing on the high death rate, particularly of children. Cows were required to be brought on later ships."

Right Wife Is Important Gal To Businessman

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

The man who wants to be a success in business should pick the right wife, says Joseph Weiss, a businessman with an unusual philosophy.

"Most men don't realize how important their wives are in shaping their financial future," says Weiss, president of an auto seatcover manufacturing company with retail outlets all over the country. "I won't hire a representative, or even allow a man to invest his own money in my business, if I don't think his wife can be an asset."

The era of the clinging vine has passed, says Weiss who explains his theory thus:

Understanding Person

"Behind every successful man there is a woman who understands at just what point a man needs to be pushed and when he wants to be coddled. She should encourage him when he's down in the dumps and tighten the rein when he shows signs of wandering into aimless pursuits."

"She must be happy and interested in her husband's career, realizing that it's her career too, and that she can make or break it."

"She must be a good mixer, willing and able to meet and entertain her husband's business associates, to make friends with them and to make them believe that friend husband is a rostin'-tootin' go-getter, even if he's merely a milk-toast."

"A successful wife should keep her own appearance up to snuff, so that her husband will be proud of her and his associates will be impressed."

Luncheon

Mrs. Mary Jane Mumford entertained members of the South Dixon Teachers Reading Circle Thursday at the Mumford home, "Sunset Acres," north of Dixon. A delicious luncheon was served in the picturesque setting of the Mumford's yard. A pink and white color scheme was used for decorating the luncheon table.

Games, contests and visiting were enjoyed in the afternoon.

Woman Publisher Is Staff For Paper Without Phone

Newspaperwoman turned editor, Marguerite Gahagan puts out her own paper in a log cabin deep in Michigan's North Woods with the help and interest of the entire community of Johannesburg. She's editorial, advertising and circulation departments combined, driving many miles daily to collect and check her material.

NEW YORK — (NEA) — As publisher of the North Woods Call, Marguerite Gahagan of Johannesburg, Mich., is undoubtedly the only newspaper editor in the country who can throw another log on the fire, turn up the record player and get out a paper. And she works without a telephone. Not only that, she's successful.

This year, she was named Michigan Headliner by the Detroit chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary journalism sorority.

When she started her weekly paper last November, Miss Gahagan swapped a beat of criminal court and recorder's court for a log cabin in the center of Michigan's hunting and fishing country. Now, The Call is read by people from New York to California and is particularly popular with tourists and cabin owners who like to read about the woods when they must be away from them.

As for getting out a paper without a 'phone, she explains: "There just aren't any telephones in the North Woods. So I travel miles hunting news. And people tuck news tips into my car, wherever it's parked."

The whole town (population about 200) takes a personal interest in the paper and eagerly awaits its arrival each Tuesday.

As a matter of fact, transportation looms as a far larger matter than the no 'phone problem. If she hears that someone has caught a prize pike, Miss Gahagan may have to drive miles over rutted roads to find out about it. Then she's quite likely to discover that the fisherman is out cutting pulpwood in the swamp and can't be found. In the deep of winter, her car often gets stuck in snowdrifts and must be rescued by a jeep.

"Home" and "city room" to this former Detroit reporter are now combined in the living room of a handsome log house with early American walnut and cherry furniture, chintz drapes, books and record albums. The cabin is on a lake, two long city blocks

Beloit Theatre Group Announces Show for August

BELOIT, Wis.—The seventh production of the 1954 Court Theatre will be "The Devil Passes," by the English playwright, Benn Levy. The show opens Tuesday, Aug. 3, at Wright Art Hall arena theatre on the Beloit College campus.

Officially termed "A Religious Comedy in three acts and a prologue," "The Devil Passes" is the sixth of 10 plays by Levy, which include the summer theatre favorite "Springtime for Henry." "The Devil," as it is known in England, takes place in the country home of D. C. Magnus, a middle-aged and somewhat profligate writer with an off assortment of friends, all of whom have some secret desire to do, or have something. When these desires are revealed in a game of "Truths," the process of fulfillment begins, with each character being helped along to an unexpected decision by a most unusual man.

Jackie Newman, Anne Randall, Betty Jensen, Paul Yeager, Maurice Ottinger, Ida Powlas, Ted Holcombe and Joy Amstutz will have roles in the play, and will be joined by Court Theatre director Kirk Denmark in one of his rare appearances on-stage.

"The Devil Passes" will run from Tuesday, Aug. 3, through Saturday, Aug. 7. Curtain time is 8:30 CST on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday; 7:30 CST on Wednesday and Thursday.

Daily Care Counts Most

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Being self-conscious of the way her teeth look has prevented many a teen-ager from smiling in response to her friends and acquaintances.

When being introduced to new friends, the self-conscious teen-ager will keep her mouth in a tight line that's most unbecoming. Or, at best, she will attempt a half-smile with her lips closed. At any rate, she will use any unattractive expression rather than reveal cooked or discolored teeth.

If you see your dentist for regular checkups, you're well on your way to having healthier, more beautiful teeth.

Then, the daily care you give them is next in importance. The really well-groomed girl spends five, not two minutes, brushing her teeth and massaging her gums morning and night and after each meal.

When you haven't a toothbrush with you, the next best thing you can do after eating is retreat to the powder room and swish water

Ike, Meek Exchange Pledges

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has written Joseph T. Meek, Republican candidate for the Senate in Illinois, expressing delight at Meek's pledge of support and saying he is looking forward to greeting Meek next Jan. 3 "as the junior United States senator from Illinois."

The White House made public today an exchange of letters with Meek, who will face Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas in the November election.

In his letter dated July 23, Meek said Eisenhower could "count on my loyalties and my support as the junior senator from Illinois."

He told the President the people of Illinois are looking forward "with great interest and keen anticipation to his visit to the Illinois State Fair at Springfield Aug. 19."

"There is no question in my mind," Meek added, "but that the boost your presence will give us will assure the success of our entire ticket from top to bottom."

Replying on July 27, the President said he was looking forward to greeting Meek as the new senator and said his administration has sought to secure enactment of a program "assuring maximum security for the country and prosperity for every citizen."

He added it is now apparent that most of this program will be adopted and added:

"I am delighted to have your personal assurance that I can count on your loyalty and support in furthering this program and the objectives and purposes of this administration."

Profit Pictures Compares Favorably With '53 Boom

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The first 416 corporations to report on earnings show that profits from American industry and trade are running neck and neck today with booming 1953.

But for an unusually large number of corporations, the profit and loss statements are either very good or very bad.

Half of the companies are doing better than last year—some blazing new trails into record high profits for the first half of the year. The general business slump may have cut their sales totals, but lighter taxes push them into new high ground.

Some Trailing
Just about as many are trailing last year's first six months' earnings. And 17 of the companies operated in the red so far this year. Only five did a year ago.

Utilities and communication companies gain much more than did industrials. Railroads were dragging—25 of the 28 showing declines in earnings this year, and four reporting net losses.

The 416 corporations' combined net profit after taxes comes to $3,335,328,254. The same companies earned $3,268,213,308 in the first half of 1953. This puts them 2 per cent ahead this year, with 211 of them showing gains over a year ago.

The 368 industrials in the list had combined earnings 6.7 per cent ahead of a year ago. The 20 utilities showed a combined increase of 51 per cent. But the 28 rails were off 44 per cent.

Aircraft Up
Biggest gains this year were made by aircraft companies, reflecting defense spending as well as tax relief. Motors reporting so far are ahead, with General Motors' gains setting the pace. The end of the excess profits tax helped here.

Coal, textiles, carpets, alcoholic beverages, farm equipment, tools, and mining companies are mostly on the sad side of the ledger. Half of the coal companies operated in the red, as did five of the 14 textile firms.

Steel companies did better than many had expected. Although 24 of 30 companies had lower profits than in the 1953 period—which represented the peak of their production boom—their combined earnings were off only 14 per cent.

Salts Down
Steel sales were down considerably more than that. But federal tax payments were so much smaller this year that profits held fairly well.

And many of the steel companies report that the April, May, June period found profits rising well above their low point in the first three months of this year.

The sliding railroads blame most of their plight upon the business slump which affected their big customers more than the country as a whole. Durable goods makers and raw material suppliers shipped far less by rail this year than last, and rail operating revenues tumbled.

Oil companies managed to stay ahead of last year by 7 per cent, but their current production, sales and price problems is tending to tear down that gain.

Rarely has the profit picture been so spotted with gains and losses between industries and between companies in the same industry.

It seems to have been a recession only for some—continuing good business for many—and a boom for a few.

Politicians Eye 'Profits' In Tax Reduction Bill

Democrats, Republicans See Campaign Material

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress completed action Thursday night on the first complete overhaul of the nation's tax laws in 75 years, and both Republicans and Democrats claimed they would profit more politically.

The action by a 61-26 vote sent to the White House for virtually certain approval the bill President Eisenhower had designated as the cornerstone of his 1954 program.

Only three Republicans—Dworshak (Idaho), Langer (ND) and Williams (Del)—joined 22 Democrats and Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) in voting "no." Supporters included 42 Republicans and 19 Democrats.

$1.2 Billion Cuts
The revision bill carries $1,363,000,000 in assorted tax cuts for individuals and corporations in its first year of operation, more in later years. It does not change major tax rates except to maintain the 52 per cent levy on corporate income which dropped to 47 per cent April 1 and is extended retroactively.

Republicans hailed the bill as capping a 7 1/2-billion-dollar 1954 tax reduction program—biggest for any single year. This already has been used in GOP campaign material.

Democrats interject here that two big boons to the taxpayer took effect automatically under a 1951 law enacted when their party controlled Congress.

These include two big reductions which took effect Jan. 1—three billion dollars through a 10 per cent personal income tax cut and two billions through expiration of the corporation excess profits tax.

GOP-Supported
On April 1 various excise tax cuts totaling a billion dollars took effect. These were fought by the Treasury but enthusiastically supported by Republican congressional leaders.

Republicans also contend the big revision bill will be politically helpful to them because it contains benefits for such groups as retired persons, families with heavy medical expenses, mothers who must work to support their children, fathers with children in college who earn part of their way, and farmers with big soil conservation expenditures.

GOP leaders from the President down argue the bill will spur business by providing more funds for plant expansion and modernization through a wide variety of more liberal deductions for businesses. This will mean more jobs, they say.

Cuts for Rich
Democrats, claiming they will benefit, say the bill concentrates benefits for big corporations and the wealthy, but does little or nothing for the average little man.

The minority centers its fire on a provision in the bill giving relief to stockholders on their dividend income. Under it, the first $50 of dividend income is excluded entirely in figuring income tax. The major relief, though, comes from a provision permitting a stockholder to deduct from his tax 4 per cent of his dividend income above $50.

Supporters of this argued it would in part end "double taxation" of corporate profits, and also would provide more equity capital for business expansion.

Rochelle Youth Bound Over to Grand Jury

Charged with the May 14 burglary of the Wood and Rounds Service Station, Ashton, Jimmie Smedley, 18, of Rochelle, was bound over to the September term of the Lee County Grand Jury Thursday afternoon at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Sterling W. Schrock.

Unable to make $2,000 bond, Smedley still was in the county jail this morning. The youth was brought to Dixon Tuesday by Chief Deputy Robert Burrs after he had been turned over by MacLean County authorities at Bloomington. Smedley had been in custody there, charged with the theft of an auto license plate.

At the time the Ashton service station was broken into, a safe had been rolled out of the building, but officers arrived before the loot could be removed.

Three Pay $15 Fines Thursday

Two speeders and a reckless driver each were fined $15 and court costs in Dixon traffic court Thursday afternoon by Justice of the Peace Sterling W. Schrock.

The two speeders, both of Dixon, were Jack Schluter, 606 Brinton Ave., and Robert Rorer, 654 E. Fellows St. Fined for reckless driving was Dwayne C. Crady, 17, of Harmon, who was arrested July 18. The speeders both were arrested last Friday.

Reaction to Dior's New Style a Bust

NEW YORK (AP)—Eliminate the great American bosom? Heck, no! This was the almost universal reaction of U. S. designers, bra manufacturers, actresses and the general public today to Paris designer Christian Dior's latest fashion bombshell, the flat-chested look.

"Try, try again" seems to be Christian Dior's motto for keeping women in an uproar," commented John C. Conover, executive director of the Corset and Brassiere Assn.

"Sometimes he tells women to wear their skirts short, sometimes long; sometimes he tells them to discard their girdles, sometimes their bras.

"After a flurry of 'Shall we or shall we not', American women usually decide to dress as they look best."

Oleg Cassini, New York designer and former husband of movie star Gene Tierney, was indignant when told of the Dior decree to banish the bustline. Said he:

"Anytime you tamper with a woman's figure, you're headed for trouble. This new idea is not only unflattering but also unhealthy."

One of the most indignant reactions came from an American bra manufacturer who attended the Dior showing in Paris. Henry Plehn, president of Peter Pan Foundations, cabled his New York office:

"American women will not be bound by Dior's anti-bust edict. This is the worst form of retrogression, since women have spent the last 20 years getting their figures in shape."

Dior's new silhouette is described as completely flat-chested, with dress-tops cut like unshaped camisoles, waists loose, belis, if any, at the hipline. Some of them appear to be simply dress-length cardigans.

Reveal $40,000 Ashton Estate
The $40,000 estate of Della Trask, Ashton, who died June 20 at Rochelle, was probated today in Lee County Court.

Among the 26 heirs mentioned in the will to share the estate. The petition for probate listed $30,000 in real estate and $10,000 in personal property.

Named to receive 20 per cent of the estate each were a brother, Henry Shippee, California, and a niece, Mary Sanders, Ashton. Twenty per cent of the estate is to be divided among Guy Shippee, Sterling; Edward Shippee, New Jersey; and Ruby Tellash, Nevada.

Mrs. Trask stipulated that 10 per cent of the estate go to nieces Leola Quick and Laila Gehant, 222 E. Second St., Dixon; Caroline Ackland, Steward, and Della Lazier, Mattoon.

Before the estate was to be divided, Mrs. Trask stipulated that $1,000 be given to the First Methodist Church of Ashton, and that $100 apiece be given to Millard Fell, Steward; Edgar Fell, Decatur; Elred Fell, Rockford, and Harry Quick, Dixon.

Probated by County Judge Gehant Thursday was the $16,500 estate of Mrs. Frances S. Mong, Franklin Grove, who died July 13.

The estate included $1,500 in personal property and $15,000 in real estate. Mrs. Mong stipulated that the estate be divided among three sons, Wilbur, Belvidere; and Ralph and Warren, Franklin Grove.

Pittsburgh Mother Gives Birth to Three Boys, Girl

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mrs. Ruth Hurd, 25, wife of a Negro plasterer, early today gave birth to quadruplets—three girls and a boy—at Magee Hospital.

The first child—a girl—was born at 4:38 a.m. (EDT). The second youngsters—a boy—arrived at 4:45 a.m. the other two girls were born at 4:50 and 4:54 a.m.

Hospital attaches said Mrs. Hurd, also the mother of an 18-months-old child, was in fair condition along with her new brood.

They said the babies were "very small" and weighed probably "less than two pounds each." The babies, the hospital said, will be weighed Saturday.

Rudolph Hurd, the father of the new quads, smoking a big, fat cigar, said:

"I can't believe it. I was willing to settle for twins, but four, ouch." Hurd, 25-year-old veteran of World War II, said he and his wife vacated their one-room apartment with kitchen privileges about two months ago. She's been in the hospital for over a month.

"What worries me is where I'm going to keep the new ones. I guess I better find a better job. I've only been making $40 or $50 a week and you can't raise a big family on that kind of money."

The quads, believed to be the first in the city's history, arrived two months ahead of schedule.

Senator McCarthy in New Role--That of Waiting

Others Make Headlines As He Sits by Quietly

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (U)—The position of Senator McCarthy found himself in today—waiting while his fellow senators argued whether to censure him—was typical of the role he played in 1954. It's a new role for him.

Ever since 1950, when he first made headlines with his charges against Communists in government, he had moved fast, kept punching. He rolled with the counter-punches, dug harder in return. Nothing kept him quiet.

For most of this year he has been forced into a role sometimes passive, sometimes defensive. It has been that way with him ever since the Eisenhower administration early this year struck back at him.

Situation Reversed

In the past he called his shots, setting attention where he wanted with a statement or an attack. This year the shots have been aimed on him. Most of the attention given him in 1954 has not been of his choosing.

McCarthy, a man of energy who thrived on action, has been slowed down. Whether or not anyone in the administration foresaw the result of the decision to hit back at him, the result was to crimp his style.

Sen. Flanders' effort may fail. The 73-year-old Vermont Republican wants the Senate to censure McCarthy. If it fails, McCarthy may take that as a vote of approval and come bounding back like his old self.

Although it was his own Republican party which had taken over, McCarthy began sticking needles into the Eisenhower administration early in 1953. He kept on sticking them in.

The decision to tell him "whoa" was made when the Army charged McCarthy and his Senate investigations subcommittee staff had sought special treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine and had threatened retaliation if they didn't get it. Schine was formerly on the staff.

The Final Straw

When McCarthy counter-charged that top Army officials had been using Schine as a "hostage" to make McCarthy pull up on his search for Communists in the Army, the fat was in the fire. The Senate itself had to step in to investigate, and the subcommittee took on the job—with McCarthy temporarily sidelined as chairman.

Right there McCarthy was slowed down. McCarthy, glued to the hearings, was like a boxer with his hands tied behind his back.

His field had been narrowed. In long weeks of the hearings he had to concentrate on one subject: Trying to make himself and his staff look good and the Army bad.

He fought hard, he was nimble, and before the hearings ended the Army and the administration may have wished the whole thing had never been permitted to start. Maybe.

If the administration had planned, or hoped, to keep McCarthy off its back for most of the congressional session, it succeeded. For even when the hearings ended McCarthy did not resume his old role.

Took Rest

First of all, he went off for a rest of almost three weeks. Then he wanted, he said, to go after Communists in defense plants. All through the hearings he had complained they were delaying his search for Reds in those plants.

He made a brief stab at holding hearing on that subject and then dropped them, at least for the time being. He has probably been more quiet since the hearings ended than in any similar period since 1950.

For there was some unsettling business: What his own Senate subcommittee, which conducted the hearings, would say when it finished working on its report. It hasn't finished yet.

In the meantime, he lost his right-hand man, Roy M. Cohn, who resigned after it was reported a majority of the subcommittee—three Democrats and one Republican—were after the young New York attorney's scalp. Cohn had been chief counsel for McCarthy and, judging from what McCarthy said, invaluable.

Then Flanders

Meanwhile, Flanders had been trying to cook up grief for McCarthy, first with an effort to get the Senate to take McCarthy's committee chairmanships away from him and, when that seemed ticketed for failure, to censure him.

But whether or not anyone likes or dislikes McCarthy, friends and foes will probably agree: He has never so far looked like a quitter when the going was rough. He'll probably bound back, censure or no censure, as soon as he sees an opening.

Churchill Gets Vote of Confidence

LONDON (U)—Parliament got ready to close shop for the summer recess today after according Prime Minister Churchill a 10-1 confidence vote on his plan to pull British troops from the Suez Canal zone. Most Laborites abstained on the ballot.

The House of Commons backed the prime minister's historic decision by a vote of 257-26 after Churchill declared the H-bomb had rendered the billion dollar, 75-year-old string of bases obsolete.

Churchill, who in World War II remarked he had not become prime minister in order to liquidate the empire, declared Thursday the whole British position in the Suez had been outdated by "the appalling developments and the appalling spectacles which imagination raises before us."

The agreement, which has strong U. S. support, calls for the transfer of 83,000 British troops from their Suez base within 20 months after a seven-year pact is signed.

The pact will give Britain the right to reoccupy the base in case of attack on Turkey or any of the eight Arab nations.

Central Figure in 1904 Murder Trial Emerges From Obscurity

LONG BEACH, Calif. (U)—Evelyn Nesbit, for whom millionaire Harry K. Thaw shot and killed architect Stanford White in New York in a 1906 sensation, has come out of obscurity in a new career as a sculptress.

Today she is presiding over a booth in a ceramics show at Long Beach Municipal Auditorium. She disclosed Thursday that she has been living, without public attention, in Los Angeles for six years.

Now 69, the one-time chorus girl wife of Thaw said of the sensations of 1906: "Those things of the other years are all gone now. I love each day for what it brings. I'm happy. I'm at peace. And I work very hard."

The name of Evelyn Nesbit was known the world over nearly a half century ago. Thaw, who said she admitted premarital intimacies with White, strode into the architect's penthouse atop the Madison Square Garden Building he designed and shot White to death before horrified guests.

Miss Nesbit testified for Thaw at his trial and the testimony was so torrid that the Canadian House of Commons debated whether to censor its use by Canadian newspapers. In Thaw's first trial he pleaded temporary insanity but a special commission found him sane and the jury reached a stalemate. In the second trial he was acquitted but declared insane and spent seven years in private asylums. He divorced Miss Nesbit in 1912. He died in Miami Beach, Fla., in 1947.

How You Benefit Under Revised Income Tax Law

WASHINGTON (U)—Here are some of the ways you as an individual taxpayer can benefit through the tax revision bill:

DIVIDEND INCOME—If you're a stockholder, you won't have to pay any tax at all on the first $50 of income in dividends. Furthermore, you can take 4 per cent of any dividend income above $50 and deduct that from your tax payment.

MEDICAL EXPENSES—You may deduct medical expenses above 3 per cent of income, instead of 5 per cent as at present. But you must remember that from now on you may only deduct sums spent for drugs and medicines above 1 per cent of your income. Also, you can have a total medical deduction of $10,000 for your family; the limit has been $5,000.

RETIREMENT INCOME—You won't have the basic 20 per cent tax rate on the first $1,200 of retirement income received after you pass 65. If you're a retired government employee such as a teacher, fireman or policeman, you can get the benefit even though you're under 65.

WORKING MOTHERS—If you must work to support children under 12 or other dependents, and if your husband is incapacitated or if the combined income of the family is less than $4,500, you may deduct up to $600 spent for child care.

SOIL CONSERVATION—If you're a farmer putting a lot of money into soil rebuilding, you may deduct these outlays up to 25 per cent of your gross income.

COLLEGE STUDENTS—If you have a child who is under 19 or is in college and has a job which pays him more than $600 a year, you may continue to list him as a dependent with a $600 exemption on your return if you pay half of his support.

CHARITIES—You may deduct up to 30 per cent of your income for charitable contributions, instead of 20 as at present.

INSTALLMENT BUYING—You may deduct the carrying charges on such purchases.

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD—If your husband or wife dies, you may continue for two years to get the full benefit of income splitting as on a joint return.

HEALTH & ACCIDENT PLANS—If you miss work because of an illness or an injury, you are entitled to tax exemption on payments made to you by your employer, up to $100 a week, if they are issued under a regular health and accident plan. The exemption does not apply in the first seven days of an illness, unless you are hospitalized.

DECLARATIONS OF ESTIMATED TAX—If you're married and have up to $10,000 of income, practically all of it subject to withholding, you no longer need to file a declaration of estimated tax.

RAPID DEPRECIATION—If you're a businessman or farmer, you may use the new double declining balance method of quick depreciation on a plant or piece of equipment. This means that in the first year of life, you can write off twice the amount for depreciation now allowed; thus you can concentrate most of the write-off in the early years of use of the item.

Navy Diver Collapses During Test

WASHINGTON (U)—Navy hospital authorities reported "no essential change" today in the condition of Arthur Appleton, young Navy diver who collapsed in a Navy diving tank Tuesday.

He was still in the "deep coma" which physicians had reported since he was removed from a decompression chamber to the hospital at Bethesda, Md.

The 24-year-old machinist's mate from Carbondale, Ill., was on a practice dive in a tank where he was subjected to simulated pressures of a 100-foot descent, when he complained of feeling dizzy.

Removed from the tank, he was placed in the decompression chamber and doctors labored over him in relays there for 39 hours while pressure was gradually reduced to normal. Then he was taken to the hospital.

Navy diving school officials called Appleton's dive "routine" and theorized that his collapse must have resulted from aggravation of some previously existing condition rather than from effects of water pressure alone.

THE DROUGHT SITUATION in Southern Illinois is not only causing alarm to farmers, but also to the State Conservation department, according to The Associated Press.

Drought damage to Illinois wildlife spreads through about 12 million acres south of a line from Adams County to Edgar County, the state's game manager estimated today.

JOE DAVIDSON, CHIEF of the Conservation Department's game management division, said he figured quail and rabbits would suffer most from the dryness. He described their situation so far as "pretty bad."

He expressed particular concern about quail which he said are shifting soon from a diet of mostly insects to one of seeds. Even weed seeds are not produced in quantity in great heat and dryness, Davidson explained.

TO GIVE A BOOST TO ITS GOOSE dispersal program which the drought handicapped in recent years, the department plans to drill wells up to 60 feet deep at Union County refuge. With pumps, these wells are expected to provide water in Grassy Lake there. It went dry last year for the first time in 60 years.

Davidson said the Mermet refuge has a fair amount of water and with Union is expected to attract some geese from the overcrowded refuge at Horseshoe Lake in Alexander County.

THE NORTHERN TWO-THIRDS of the state generally is producing a good wildlife crop, Davidson said, and he foresaw no factors to deplete it. For example, he said, the Illinois River is growing a relatively good supply of wild cereal food for ducks.

Ask 5-Man Committee

Propose Action In Net Problem

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y. (AP) — Sidney Wood, president of the Tennis Players League, announced today that the organization was recommending a five-man committee to oversee "activities" of players on the tournament circuit.

"We hope our recommendation will be acted upon by the United States Lawn Tennis Association," said the former Wimbledon ace.

Wood said the committee would be made up of two top players, two USLTA executives and one former amateur player.

"The committee would provide for realistic action with regard to any activities of players which might be detrimental to the game, without requiring written evidence which no one wishes to, or will, provide," Wood added.

Wood's announcement came as a result of rumors that at least one of the country's better players had made excessive demands for expense money to play in the Baltimore tournament which was scheduled for this week. The tournament was abandoned.

"We know what's going on," one high-placed official of the USLTA told The Associated Press, "but unless we get proof our hands are tied."

Tony Trabert, the No. 1 player in the United States, said anyone who thinks he was the culprit was sadly mistaken.

"I want to make it clear," he said, "that these stories I've been hearing about asking for extra money from Baltimore tournament officials are all wrong. I never talked money to anyone in Baltimore."

Mike Krak Scores Hole in One; Takes Kansas City Open Lead

KANSAS CITY. (AP) — Mike Krak, virtually unknown on the professional golf circuit, held a one-stroke lead today going into the second round of the $20,000 Kansas City Open tournament.

Krak, a 26-year-old native of Czechoslovakia who served two years as a jet pilot in the U. S. Air Force, had the help of a hole-in-one—the first of his career—in shooting an eight-under-par 65.

Just a stroke off pace with 66 were Ed (Porky) Oliver of Lemont, Ill., Earl Stewart Jr. of Dallas and Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex.

Oliver won the event last year, setting a tournament record of 19 under par for the 72 holes.

First round firing over the 6,625-yard Boue Hills Country Club course Thursday found 81 of the 166 players hitting par or better.

Krak, Louisville, Ky., pro, scored his hole-in-one with a No. 2 iron on the 210-yard 15th. A tree obstructed the green.

Braves Gain in N. L. as Dodgers, Giants Drop Tilts

Today is Casey Stengel's 64th birthday and his New York Yankees didn't quite make it to first place in time for the celebration. In fact, they haven't made it to first place any time this season although they've won more of their first 100 games than any Yankee club Casey has managed.

When they whipped Chicago 10-0 Thursday, they ran their record for the year to 67 won and 33 lost. None of the past five New York pennant winners has done as well.

New York trails Cleveland by a game and a half and the day-to-day question is how long can the two clubs keep up their sizzling pace.

Play Over .700 Ball

During the last seven weeks the Yanks have won 37 out of 49, a .755 clip. The Indians captured 35 of 49 over the same period for a .714 mark.

Who'll crack first? In 10 consecutive games with Cleveland and third place Chicago the Yankees won seven times. But two of the losses were to the Indians.

While the Yankees were routing the White Sox Thursday, Cleveland collapsed before a Boston onslaught, 10-2. The Red Sox had lost 15 out of 16 to Cleveland before that.

Four of the nine games Thursday were shutouts. Whitey Ford held the White Sox to four hits in the Yankee victory. Vic Raschi, the ex-Yankee star now working for the St. Louis Cardinals, beat the New York Giants 8-0 on three hits. Corky Valentine of Cincinnati pitched a four-hitter against Philadelphia, winning 3-0 and Chuck Stobbs of Washington checked Baltimore on five hits in a 6-0 triumph.

Cubs Win 6-5

In other action Chicago defeated Brooklyn 6-5; Milwaukee won its seventh straight, 5-3 over Pittsburgh in 10 innings and Detroit took a doubleheader from Philadelphia 4-2 and 7-3.

Raschi was in complete control of the league-leading Giants. He gave up two bases on balls and struck out a pair. The only New York hits were singles by Willie Mays, Bobby Hoffman and Don Mueller. Ray Jablonski's bases-loaded double in the fifth was the big blow for St. Louis.

Pinch hitters flopped for Brooklyn as the Dodgers lost a chance to shave their two-game deficit. Manager Walt Alton used five and not one got the ball out of the infield. The final failure was George Shuba who grounded to first with the bases loaded and two out in the ninth. Hank Sauer and Ernie Banks homered for the Cubs.

Aaron Stars

The Braves had a close call in Pittsburgh. They tied the game in the ninth on three straight singles and added two more, including Hank Aaron's 12th home run, in the 10th.

Valentine not only pitched a shutout for the Redlegs, he was the batting star as well. He doubled twice, singled once and scored two of the four runs against the Phillies. The loss dumped Philadelphia into sixth place behind the Cardinals and Reds who are tied for fourth.

Boston wrapped it up early against Cleveland, routing Bobby Feller in the second inning after piling up a 5-0 lead. It was Feller's second loss and broke a seven-game winning streak for the veteran fireballer. Jackie Jensen drove in six runs with two homers and a single. Ted Williams also hit a home run.

Didn't Last

Detroit came from behind in both victories over the faltering Athletics. In the first game a two-run triple by Frank Bolling followed by a squeeze bunt by George Zuvernick put the Tigers in front in the fifth inning. In the second game the A's jumped ahead 3-0 but were caught and passed in the third inning when Bob Nieman hit a grand slam home run.

The Baltimore Orioles gave bonus rookie Bill O'Dell his first starting assignment Thursday but he couldn't get past the first inning. Two doubles a single and a walk brought Lou Kretlow to the rescue but it was too late.

U. S. Meets Cuba

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Straight Clark of the United States will open the American zone semifinal round for the Davis Cup against Reinaldo Garrido of Cuba here today.

The U. S. captain, Hamilton Richardson, then plays Orlando Garro, brother of Reinaldo. The international tennis contest will continue with a doubles match Saturday and wind up with two more singles matches Sunday.

St. Paul's Drops 4-Square; St. Pat's Defeats Immanuel

St. Paul's Races to 14-5 Win

St. Patrick's Win With Four Runs in Last of 6th Inning

League leading St. Patrick continued on its winning ways and St. Paul's kept alive its hopes of defending its league championship last night in two Church Softball league games.

St. Patrick scored four runs in the bottom of the sixth to put its game out of reach of Immanuel Lutheran for a 12-8 victory.

St. Paul's, meanwhile, rallied for eight runs in the top of the first inning and went on to a 14-5 verdict over Four Square.

St. Patrick jumped off to a 4-1 first inning lead but saw this cut to a 6-4 margin after the second inning. The loop leaders racked up two more runs in the fourth inning only to have the Lutherans rally for single runs in the fifth and sixth to trail by two again. That was when St. Patrick rallied for four runs to put the game out of reach.

Hopkins hit a home run for Immanuel for one of his two hits. Frericks also had two of Immanuel's 10 hits for the night.

Three for Three — St. Patrick, limited to seven hits, was paced by Gil Contreras who had two hits. Gorman was the winning pitcher.

Engberg and Snell set the pace for St. Paul's as they had three hits each in the 15 hit assault on Four Square pitching. Mott with three for three was the heavy hitter for Four Square.

St. Paul's scored eight runs in the first inning and then simmered down to scoring single runs in the third, fifth, sixth and seventh and two runs in the fourth.

Four Square scored its first run in the third, added one in the fourth and three in the fifth.

There will be a league meeting at the Loveland Community building at 8 p. m. Friday.

Medalist Pat Lesser Knocked From Women's Western Open

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The semifinals lineup today in the 5th Women's Western Amateur golf tournament included a member and an alternate of the Curtis Cup team but teammate Pat Lesser of Seattle didn't make it.

The 20-year-old Washington girl, who set a qualifying record of 72 for the tourney, was beaten Thursday by 19-year-old Barbara McIntire of Toledo, 1 up.

Pta had defeated Barbara in three previous meetings—in the Western Junior, National Intercollegiate and Palm Beach tournaments.

Beverly Gammon, a 1963 University of Minnesota graduate, upset Jane Nelson of Indianapolis, 1963 Western Amateur runnerup, in 22 holes and will play Miss McIntire today. The pretty St. Paul blonde, like Barbara, rallied from three down.

The other semifinalists are Claire Doran of Cleveland, the defending champion, and Mrs. Mae Murray Jones, another tourney veteran from Rutland, Vt.

Miss Doran, Curtis Cup team member, had a tight contest before winning a 1-up victory over Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, Mich., who had beaten her in 1941 Western Amateur semifinals.

Mrs. Jones, Curtis Cup alternate and Eastern Amateur champion, won her quarterfinals match from 19-year-old Mickey Wright of La Jolla, Calif., 4 and 3.

BRAINS—Big Jim Tatum of Maryland has top flight quarterbacks to choose from cos. ing the All-Stars against the Detroit Lions in the All-Star Game at Soldier Field, Chicago, Aug. 13. Mile Record Breakers in British Run

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — The fifth British Empire Games, the commonwealth's own "Olympics," today brought together some of the world's top athletes—including two men who have broken the four-minute mile.

Track and field men, swimmers and fencers were set for nine days of competition.

The Duke of Edinburgh and Field Marshal Lord Alexander, former governor-general of Canada, were here to take part in the official opening ceremonies.

An unofficial American representative was to be Adlai Stevenson, 1952 Democratic presidential candidate, who was scheduled to stop over on his way back from a tour of Alaska.

Colorful full-dress uniforms, bands, pageantry and the parade of 775 athletes from 24 countries will open the games officially tonight. Competition starts Saturday.

A week from Saturday thousands of persons in Vancouver's New Empire Stadium—and millions throughout the world—expect to find out what happens when John Landy of Australia meets England's Roger Bannister, the man who first smashed the four-minute mile with 3:59.4. Landy later ran the distance in 3:58.

Fight Results

SEATTLE (AP) — Harry Kid Matthews is taller and has a greater reach than Don Cockell of London, but he'll be topped in all other statistics by the British Empire champion in their 10-round heavyweight fight tonight.

Cockell is expected to weigh in at anything from 207 to 211 today — the cockney has been keeping his poundage a secret.

Matthews, who is 5 feet 11, will weigh about 180. His reach is 74 1/2 inches, compared to 71 inches for the 5-foot-9 1/2.

Cockell even has the edge in Ring magazine ratings, which list him third and Matthews seventh. In case of a rain-out at Sick's Stadium, the fight would be put over until Saturday night.

'Save the A's' Proves a Bust Not One Favorable Reply From 125 Leading Citizens

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A movement in Philadelphia to "Save the A's" seems to need saving as much as the financially distressed American League team.

A report not yet released by Mayor Joseph S. Clark's office said efforts to stimulate attendance at the Athletics' games have encountered apathy and in some instances outright resistance from the public as well as from business leaders.

The report was prepared by three staff members of the mayor's committee to "Save the A's." It said letters were sent to 125 leading citizens asking them to head up subsidiary groups for the purpose of selling tickets to A's games and not one favorable reply was received.

A change in management is needed before any movement to save the A's can be successful.

Rock Island Wins Babe Ruth Crown

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (AP) — Rock Island will represent Illinois in the Midwest Babe Ruth Baseball Tournament at Kewanee next week—thanks largely to Leroy Zentic.

Zentic pitched a one-hitter and hit his third home run in four games as Rock Island whipped Chicago Heights 7-0 for the state championship Thursday night. Zentic, who played third base while not pitching, was voted the tournament's outstanding player.

Champions of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Kentucky also will be among the teams of 15-year-olds and younger opening play at Kewanee Aug. 5.

Northern Illinois Escapes Effects of Serious Drouth

By L. H. SIMERL
College of Agriculture
University of Illinois

Weather — and markets — have again grabbed first place in the farm league. Extreme heat and drouth have burned crops in many regions, but some areas have good prospects.

In general, the southern half of Illinois is much worse hit than the northern half. In fact, most of the United States south of central Illinois has had less than normal rainfall since May 15. The northeastern states have also suffered from lack of rain.

Areas of average rainfall or more this summer include northern Illinois, northern Iowa, Wisconsin, the Dakotas and the Northwest.

The drouth this year is both similar to and different from that of 1953. In general, the same areas are affected. But this year there is less subsoil moisture, and the drouth began earlier. Also, many areas have had higher temperatures this year.

Corn Burns
In extreme drouth areas corn is showing burned tassels and whitened upper leaves, something like the damage in 1936.

How much might extreme widespread drouth cut the corn crop? The most severe drouths of modern times, those of 1934 and 1936, cut production by about one billion bushels. U. S. average corn production is about 3.1 billion bushels. A billion-bushel cut would therefore leave about 2.1 billion bushels.

A crop of 2.1 billion bushels, plus a prospective carry-over of 900 million bushels, would make a total supply of 3.0 billion bushels of corn for next year. That would be about as much as is being used this year. Thus there is no extreme shortage in sight for the year ahead even if the drouth persists and spreads.

Another point: At this writing the areas that ordinarily produce most of the market corn are not so badly hurt as those farther south. This apparently applies both to Illinois and to Iowa.

Little Price-Boosting
A short corn crop this year would have less than usual price-boosting influence. Price advances will tend to be limited by the large stocks of old corn, largely in government control.

The soybean market is much more sensitive than the corn market to news of crop development. The reason is that there is no prospect of any substantial carry-over

Whitie Safe; Gets Out of Small Silo

NEW WINDSOR, Md. (P)—Whitie isn't stuck in the silo any more. Stanley Simons said he didn't know how his 7-year-old Holstein got out. He left her to her own devices overnight. When he went out to milk this morning, she was free.

Simons said Whitie wandered off after he milked her Thursday night. Somehow she squirmed her way through the 2½ by 2-foot silo door.

"She's not very tall," said Simons, "but awfully broad."

"She got in by herself. I figured she could get out by herself," he said. "She's in good condition. No damage."

There wasn't any silage in the silo.

"I think she went in there to protest the price of milk," Simons said.

Polo WCTU Will Hold Yearly Picnic

Rhee Resigned to Lack of Support For Chinese War

WASHINGTON (P)—Syngman Rhee appeared resigned today to lack of U.S. support for his plan to attack Communist China now, but the fiery South Korean President still hoped to go home with assurance of American, military and economic support.

A White House statement was to be issued after a final meeting between Rhee and Secretary of State Dulles this afternoon.

It was expected to emphasize the cordial "family-style" atmosphere that marked intensive talks during Rhee's five-day state visit, ending today. But it may not pinpoint specific agreements.

Olson Warns Of Dangers To Forests

OREGON—(Special)—"Over half of our Illinois timber resource is today threatened by extinction because of the bad practice of grazing livestock in woodlands," states Paul Olson, Farm Forester at Oregon. Grazing has become the number one forestry problem of northern Illinois and each year it results in the destruction and clearing of more timberland than for all the other reasons combined.

Olson says many landowners are unaware of the potential value of their native timberland, especially when properly managed, nor do they realize the damage done to woodlands by the grazing of livestock. Any farmer who is interested in managing his woodland for greater personal income and who also wants to help alleviate our nation's growing timber shortage, should take this first step in management and protect his timber from all livestock.

Olson also believes that Illinois timberlands would be helped considerably by a good forest tax law. Many states which have such a law allow managed forest lands, including pine plantations, to be taxed a very small amount annually with a yield tax entering the picture at time of harvest. Such a law would substitute for the present annual tax which is often too high.

By having public support for good forestry laws and programs and by having landowners use common sense good management in the timber, we need not lose our valuable timber resource, Olson says.

He says, "It is also well to remember that forest management services are provided at no charge to the landowners, by the Illinois Division of Forestry, Department of Conservation." Landowners interested in obtaining the maximum income from their woodlands should contact their nearest Farm Forester.

Sex Terrorist Gets Reprieve

Best-Seller Author Is Saved From Gas Chamber

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Caryl Chessman, convicted sex terrorist, turned best-seller author, relaxed in prison today after his fourth reprieve from execution in six years.

Chessman—32-year-old convict author of "Cell 2455, Death Row"—was granted a new stay of execution by State Supreme Court Justice Jesse Carter Thursday—less than 24 hours before his scheduled execution.

That reprieve prompted Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown to assert the administration of capital punishment in California is "a mockery of justice" and suggest abolition of the death penalty in this state.

Brown said his office will seek to have Chessman's stay reversed when the Supreme Court reconvenes in September.

Chessman was convicted in 1948 of eight counts of robbery, four of kidnapping, two of sex perversion, one of attempted rape, one of auto theft and one of attempted robbery.

Chessman a criminal since teenage days—but with an intelligence rating just below genius level—was convicted of a series of attacks in a Los Angeles lovers lane.

The state said he threatened a woman light from his auto—pretended he was a police officer to halt couples—and then dragged out his female victims and forced them to submit to acts of sexual perversion.

One of his victims is still a patient of a state mental institution. The U. S. Supreme Court twice in 1952 declined to review Chessman's case.

Chemical Plant Blast Injures 17 in Indiana

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The near South Side of Indianapolis was rocked by a roaring explosion Thursday night that gutted an Eli Lilly & Co. chemical plant and injured 6 employees and 11 firemen.

Scores of other fire fighters and policemen were burned around the feet and ankles by rivulets of diluted acid washed into the streets by thousands of gallons of water and "foam" used to smother the flames.

Hundreds of firemen, Civil Defense workers and Red Cross personnel were rushed to the scene to evacuate injured and keep the fire from spreading to barrels of highly explosive compounds stored in and around the laboratory.

Officials of the company, one of the nation's largest pharmaceutical houses, would make no official estimate of the damage.

Prisoners End 3-Day Hunger Strike

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (AP)—State Penitentiary inmates picked up their normal routines today and the man who will be their warden said the "situation is in complete accord" after a three-day sitdown and hunger strike.

Eut Lawrence Delmore Jr. warned trouble still is possible among the nearly 1,500 convicts after their 72-hour fast. Delmore will become warden Sept. 1 when John Clamor retires.

The sitdown ended suddenly Thursday afternoon when the prisoners said they were accepting assurances of Fred Dickinson, supervisor of state institutions that some of their demands would be met. They were led off to their first meal since Monday, fried eggs, fried potatoes, fruit, bread and coffee.

Some of the men were nervous and shaky after three days without food. Delmore said but "lots of water helped the situation" and most of them were in good condition.

Earlier the men had presented a series of demands for changes including a protest of the naming of Delmore former Alcatraz Federal Prison executive as successor to Clamor.

The prisoners also had demanded changes in other prison personnel.

No Arrest in Ohio Slaying

Solicitor Gets Job of Sifting All Information

CLEVELAND (AP)—The solicitor of suburban Bay Village was "in" today in the tag game characterizing the shifting responsibility in the Marilyn Sheppard murder case.

Facing Solicitor Richard Weygant as it has faced others "as the problem of whether an arrest should be made in the fatal bludgeoning of the wife of osteopath Samuel H. Sheppard last July 4.

After conferring with the sub's Mayor J. Spencer Houk, Weygant declared:

"I do not have enough information to satisfy me that an arrest should be made now."

Weygant told a reporter Thursday night he had made no decision in the matter although he said the advisability of arresting Dr. Sheppard was discussed Thursday at a meeting with top county law enforcement officials.

Cleveland Police Chief Frank W. Story whose men took over the investigation for a time said Wednesday he didn't believe present findings justified an arrest.

Story complained previously his department was called into the case after the trail was cold and too late to gain the benefits of a quick arrest and questioning.

Pretty Susan Hayes, 24-year-old laboratory technician who Prosecuted Frank I. Culhnan says admitted carrying on a romance with Dr. Sheppard, is scheduled for at least two more questioning periods.

Story said his men plan "just a few more questions. Then we are going to open the door of the cage and let the bird fly away. I see no reason to hold her."

Came Voluntarily
Miss Hayes, who formerly worked with Dr. Sheppard at Bay View Hospital, came here from California voluntarily to testify.

The body of Dr. Sheppard's 31-year-old wife was found in her bed early in the morning of July 4 after he phoned friends that an intruder had killed her. The 30-year-old osteopath later testified at a coroner's inquest that he was knocked unconscious twice in a fight with the killer.

Gives Birth Aboard Plane

HONOLULU (AP)—The 23-year-old wife of a Navy enlisted man gave birth to a 4½-pound daughter in an Hawaiian Airlines plane.

A few minutes after the plane was airborne Thursday Stewardess Betty Chinn noticed Mrs. Calotte Crook in distress. Ernest Vary the pilot, turned back toward Maui Airport but Mrs. Crook gave birth to the girl five minutes before the plane landed. Miss Chinn assisted her.

The new father, Victory H. Crooks, is attending electronic technician's school at Treasure Island, near San Francisco.

Flees Prison, Marries, Then Gets Freedom

CINCINNATI (AP)—A pastry chef who gave himself up to police after escaping from the Jefferson City, Mo., Prison Farm, today is free to start a new life with his bride.

After marrying her recently, 25-year-old Cecil W. Hamm told his bride he had escaped from Missouri with only 12 days remaining of his sentence and was wanted on two false check charges there. She pleaded with him to turn himself in so they could start over again with a clean slate.

After he told police he wanted to make restitution for the bad checks, Gov. Frank J. Lausche refused to honor extradition papers for his return to Missouri Thursday Judge Ralph B. Kohlen dismissed a fugitive charge which had been filed against him.

Scientists Will Check B-12 Effect

BALTIMORE (AP)—Johns Hopkins scientists suspect the "wonder vitamin" B-12 of failing to perform wonders for old folk. They're going to give it the third degree at Maryland Penitentiary.

For the last five years, thousands of elderly persons have been gulping B-12 at a furious rate. Their hope . . . to find renewed vigor.

Tell of Tests

Under direction of Dr. Bacon F. Chow, biochemists tested B-12 on residents of a nursing home and a group of Hopkins students. They formed two theories:

1. Old folks tend to absorb large quantities of vitamin B-12 when it is injected.
 2. But they have difficulty in absorbing it—no matter how much they need it—when they take it in pill or liquid form.
- Dr. Chow said B-12 is an all right vitamin, no question about that, when it comes to aiding persons suffering from anemia and children afflicted with tuberculosis, rheumatic fever and the like.

In children, the vitamin has proved it can aid growth and general well-being. It's a help to the old folks when it's absorbed.

Different Lives

The trouble with the experiments that led to formation of the theories was that the nursing home residents and the Hopkins students live vastly different lives. That could affect the results, Dr. Chow said.

Only in prison, he said, can scientists find large numbers of individuals—young, middle-aged and old—who eat the same food, sleep about the same hours and follow similar routines of work and recreation.

Sixty prisoners have volunteered to help with the experiments.

Dr. Chow said that if the theories are upheld, researchers will be faced with two possibilities. Either B-12 will have to be given to older people by injection or scientists will have to discover something that would help them absorb the vitamin when taken in pill or liquid form.

The idea of the whole experiment is to get vitamin B-12 into the body of the old folks where it can work its wonders.

"We are trying to add life to years," said Dr. Chow, "not just years to life. We are not interested in putting people or rocking chairs for long years. We want them to work and enjoy life."

Elgin Watch Workers Drop Wage Demand

ELGIN, Ill. (AP)—Wage demands were dropped Thursday by 4,000 workers at the Elgin National Watch Co.

Walter W. Cenerazzo, national president of the American Watch Makers Union (Ind.), made the announcement saying the action was prompted by President Eisenhower's order boosting the tariff on imported watch movements 50 per cent.

The union had been negotiating with Elgin for a month, asking for a new contract with increased wages, increased hospitalization and surgical costs and settling seniority and transfer questions.

All points had been settled except that of the wage boost at preceding sessions.

Airliner Guides Lost Pilots to Iowa Airport

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa (AP)—An airliner found a light plane lost in a heavy cloud layer over Moline Thursday and led it to safety.

They radioed the Moline Airport control on losing their way in heavy clouds. The tower operator radioed Capt. Dale Cavanaugh of Denver, piloting an United Air Lines cargo plane from Los Angeles to Chicago, then in the Moline area.

Cavanaugh radioed the brothers, instructing them to follow the larger plane's radio signals. Retracing his westward course, Cavanaugh led the Lampleys out of the clouds over Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Gas Rates Frozen for 5 Months

WASHINGTON (AP)—Natural gas rates for customers of the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. in Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio will remain the same for the next five months.

Increases Panhandle proposed to put into effect Aug. 1 were blocked Thursday by the Federal Power Commission which ordered a hearing on the increase Oct. 5.

After the five months suspension period, Panhandle may charge perfect landing and then resumed his flight to Chicago.

There was only 30 minutes of gas left in the light plane.

higher rates, the commission ruled, but if any of the proposed increase is denied it will have to be refunded.

The increase would boost Panhandle's annual income by $12,127,684, increasing its return on its investment from the present 5 1/2 per cent to 6 1/2 per cent. The former rate of return was approved by the commission April 15.

Panhandle distributes natural gas from Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas to 51 utilities and numerous Industrial plants in five midwest states.

Black Hills Boys Offering Porcupine Eggs to Tourists

By HAL BOYLE

RAPID CITY, S. D. (AP)—Leaves from a touring reporter's notebook: They have fresh hens' eggs on restaurant menus here—and 60-million-year-old dinosaur eggs in museums.

But the naive tourist will do well to beware of any souvenir bargains offered him in dried porcupine eggs. They are nothing but dried cockleburrs, fixed up by local pranksters to kid the visitors.

The Black Hills, home of free-roaming buffalo and the famous Mt. Rushmore Memorial has had a fabulous past. The area now has become one of the nation's big tourist meccas, but a guy from out of town finds it hard to know what to believe. For the folks here still have the old pioneer fondness for a good yarn, whether it is actually a true story or only a tall tale.

Wind Cave

Take Wind Cave, for example, which has miles of explored passageways and several huge chambers. One called "the bridal chamber," so named, according to a guide, because of a girl who figured the only way she could carry out a promise to her mother she would never marry the best man on earth—and still get the guy she wanted—was to marry him in the cavern.

But no such ceremonies have been allowed, according to the same guide, because "naturally the government doesn't want to run matrimony into the ground."

Everyone recalls the tragic fate of Gen. George A. Custer and more than 200 men wiped out in the battle of the Little Big Horn River in Montana on June 25, 1876. The Indians, who always resented the fact the battle was called a "massacre," still point out that the white troops were fully armed—and they weren't packing water pistols.

Few Remember

Few today remember, however, that Custer was sent to the Black Hills in 1874, following the financial panic of 1873, to check on reports the hills held gold.

Custer set forth on his journey from a fort on the present site of Bismarck, N. D., with a force of a thousand men led by a brass band mounted on white horses. The expedition, accompanied by the son of President U. S. Grant, carried a supply of champagne in its wagons.

The strange caravan did find gold on Aug. 2, 1874 in the Black Hills, which for centuries the Indians had held to be the inviolate home of Maniow, the Great Spirit. Less than two years later Custer, neither the first nor the last American military leader to underestimate an enemy, and the men with him were washed out by waves of vanishing Redskins who didn't choose at that particular moment to vanish.

No band blared on that day, and it wasn't champagne that flowed.

Mother Bitten By Deadly Snake

DUQUOIN, Ill. (AP)—A young mother of four children is recovering from bites of an apparently poisonous snake.

The snake, about 2 1/2 feet long, attacked Mrs. Eria Engelhardt, 30, near her farm home near Pinckneyville Wednesday.

Mrs. Engelhardt told hospital officials the snake sprang from beneath a pile of clothing in her children's bedroom and bit her twice on the ankle. Her screams brought a neighbor who killed the reptile with a rifle bullet.

Chicago First Target in Hunt For 'Wetbacks'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell says Chicago will be among the first cities checked in a drive by the immigration service to clean illegal Mexican entrants out of metropolitan areas.

Brownell announced that the Immigration Service has completed a clean-out of Mexican "wetbacks" in the Southwest, which, he said, involved the greatest migration of people ever witnessed on this continent, at least in modern times.

Now, the immigration service announced, patrolmen will turn to the industrial centers of the north to ferret out those "wetbacks" who sneaked into the southwest and then migrated to the large cities to get jobs in industrial plants. The announcement Thursday said Chicago will be among the first checked.

'Jackpot' Gang Is Quizzed

CHICAGO (AP)—Five Texans were held for questioning today after two Kankakee, Ill., women told police of a tour of Chicago area clubs "springing" slot machine jackpots.

Capt. Thomas Alcock said police found an elaborate set of tools for that purpose, admission cards to 25 private clubs and stacks of quarters were found in the group's North Side hotel room.

Those held without charge were Howard Eugene Straud, 36; his wife, Mamie, 41; Norman Moseley, 25, his wife, Helen, 21, all of Fort Worth, and James Brown of Talco, Tex. Another man known as Jimmy Wells was sought.

Capt. Alcock said Mrs. Evadene Sicard, 26, of 1039 E. Maple St., Kankakee, told of accompanying the four men and two women Tuesday on a tour of clubs where she said she saw them use special tools to loot slot machines. Mrs. Sicard, who said she did not share in the loot, was also held for questioning. She said her husband is a railroad switchman.

Alcock said Mrs. Gynelle Sirls, 21, of 850 S. Fourth Ave., Kankakee, first informed police of the group's operations after visiting the Texans in a downtown hotel while looking for Mrs. Sicard. Mrs. Sicard said she turned down an invitation to accompany them on another tour of night clubs.

The police captain said Mrs. Sicard said she was invited to visit the clubs with the group after making the acquaintance of Wells in a downtown tavern.

There were 94 deaths attributed to football in the United States between 1949 and 1953.

ARE IN ORDER
To the DRS. EDWARDS

THE NEW EDWARDS' CLINIC BUILDING is pictured above. Located at 619 S. Galena Ave. and incorporating a spacious parking lot in the rear that is accessible from a Seventh Street entrance. Built of beautiful and durable yellow brick with just enough grey building stone used in the masonry to add a touch of decor that makes it outstanding architecturally.

The inside room arrangement is one that affords comfort and ease in handling patients. Carefully planned throughout in every detail as only they, the new owners, could do. It is with great pride and sincere best wishes that we, the contractors, have taken part in the construction of this fine new Clinic. Community progress has been immeasurably advanced. Congratulations Drs. Sr. and Jr. Edwards.

This advertisement is paid for by the contractor and sub contractors listed below who feel that a big contribution to community progress has been made by the Drs. Edwards in the erection of this new clinic. Copy has been carefully compiled so as not to infringe on the non-advertising ethics of the medical profession.
